TRAINING SITE: GEORGE S. MICKELSON CRIMINAL JUSTICE CENTER, 1302 EAST HIGHWAY 14, PIERRE, SD 57501

APRIL 25-26, 2007

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Chiefs of police, public safety directors, and/or executive level law enforcement personnel who are in command staff positions, or who may be called upon to be Incident Commanders during a Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) incident or in planning a response to a WMD incident are encouraged to attend. This is a regional training session open to registrants whose agency is located within 250 miles from the training site.

TRAINING HIGHLIGHTS:

A key component of the "Leading from the Front: Weapons of Mass Destruction Awareness for the Law Enforcement Executive" two-day training is to encourage law enforcement executives to engage in forward thinking relative to preparation for and response to a WMD incident. The course material will enhance the knowledge of law enforcement executives to detect and deter acts of terrorism, respond and mitigate the consequences of a WMD attack, and help determine tools, resources and support systems in the community for planning and responding to WMD incidents and other disasters.

AGENDA AT-A-GLANCE:

DAY ONE:

Module 1: Terrorism: New and Old; an Introduction
Module 2: Introduction to WMD
Module 3: Homeland Security: Implications for State and Local Law Enforcement
Module 4: Planning for WMD Incidents
